Message From Our President

Hope everyone has had a restful summer. My thoughts today turn to unity. Many, many nations throughout history have been destroyed by separation within their government and citizens agendas. Germany, Russia, Israel, Cuba, just to name a few went to be destroyed and rebuilt over the centuries because of division within their societies. Some never recover! Our country, states, cities, and counties are all divided in so many disturbing ways. Our only hope to survive does not come from man but our belief in God all Mighty and His power! By the Christian values of compassion, forgiveness, faith, and belief in the Lord, we must turn to come together as a nation. The divisions are based in society and are against the grassroots of our country/world! We must come together and be as strong as we thought we were many years ago, to revive our pride in our nation! Reach across all boundaries to embrace our differences in our society!!! God Bless each of you and keep you safe.
