Comal County Precinct Chairs

Why do we publish the Comal County Precinct Chair List in the Republican Club Newsletter each month? Our mission as active Republicans is to support the political process. Each one of us should know what Precinct we live in and who serves as our Precinct Chair.

We should offer our assistance to our Precinct Chair for the elections. We can assist as an Election clerk or Election Judge on Election Day. We can offer to block walk to inform our neighbors of early voting. We can block walk for our chosen candidates. We can offer to take a list of Republicans to call with a reminder of the times and places to vote early. There are a number of ways an individual can help to assure a maximum Republican vote.

Studies show that when people intend to vote, but fail to vote early, a substantial percentage of that vote is lost on Election Day. There is a lot to be done. Please offer your help to your Precinct Chair.

Support our Delegates!

Mr. Orlando Dona, a Comal Republican Party State Convention Delegate and HQ volunteer and helper, was elected as a Delegate (Alternate) to represent OUR Congressional and Senatorial District at the National Convention in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He will be traveling this July 12-20th and expects to pay around $7,000. If you would care to donate to help him defray his expenses -- any amount would be appreciated (thank you, Sue!!) -- please go to <https://gofund.me/b38e3b76> or scan the QR code!

Thank you!

Friends,

Last month at our Republican Party of Texas State Convention, I was elected as a National Delegate from Congressional District 35!

It is an incredible honor to earn the trust and vote of my fellow Congressional District delegates.

I have been a loyal supporter of our Party, its principles and platform, and have served in several different roles, however, never as a delegate to our Republican National Convention.

In 2020, I was honored by being elected as a Texas Elector and then elected as the Secretary of the Electoral College by my fellow peers. It has been the most solemn duty I have performed on behalf of our State for our Nation. I faithfully cast my electoral vote that year for Donald J. Trump and Mike Pence and signed all the documents sent to the 3 U.S. Senate containing our 38 Texas electoral votes for the Trump/Pence ticket.

Unfortunately, we know the result of that election.

Since then our nation has experienced a severe decline under the Biden regime. We cannot allow our Nation to continue on this course.

This time we must fight with the same might as our founding fathers did, because our nation, our families, and our freedoms are at stake once again!

I know you agree.

This is why I am asking for your prayerful consideration to help me cover the delegate's financial responsibility to make it to Milwaukee.

The trip cost ranges anywhere from $4K to $6K, and I am asking supporters to consider making a contribution to ease the cost.

I take my allegiance to our Party, State, and Nation very earnestly, and I believe that this fight for our Country is worth the opportunity offered to me.

I am deeply grateful for your kindness, support, and, more importantly, for your prayers.

In liberty and in Christ,
Naomi Narvaiz

Biden inflation law messed with seniors' Medicare coverage. Here's how.

By Dr. Robin Armstrong, May, 2024

It's been almost two years since President Joe Biden's so-called Inflation Reduction Act took effect, with the promise of lowering drug costs and increasing access to both prescriptions and coverage. The outcome of this new federal policy has been, not surprisingly, quite different from what was sold to the American people.

The law is yet another example of the Biden administration making unrealistic promises and pretending that Americans will not notice when they have less health coverage, reduced access to prescription drugs and fewer options in the marketplace, all while paying more in premiums. The authors of the inflation law knew that the changes they were making to Medicare would result in higher premiums; they just falsely believed that government controls would prevent consumers from being hit the hardest.

In reality, premiums have increased significantly — by more than 22%, with rates expected to continue to rise. While they do, Plan D options continue to dwindle, with the fewest number of plans available than ever before. In the last year alone more than 100 plans have been removed from the market — a 50% reduction in plans compared to the first year of the program.

Those hardest hit by this Biden policy: low-income Americans who are already living paycheck to paycheck. Low income seniors have far fewer options today than they did this time last year. According to the Kaiser Family Foundation, there has been a 34% reduction in plans offered to those seniors. We are doing a disservice to our most vulnerable by reducing their options for care.

Not only has the Biden inflation law resulted in more out-of-pocket costs to Americans, but the impact of government intervention into the marketplace has also drastically reduced the amount of funding that goes toward research and development for new treatments. While this program was heralded as one of “innovation” and “ingenuity,” there is nothing to celebrate when costs go up and options go away. In fact, this is something we should be quite ashamed of. It's a reminder of why every Republican member of Congress voted against the Inflation Reduction Act.

When Congress passed the law in 2022, many promises were made. Time has shown how quickly the administration forgot those promises. It's time we use our voices to push back against government intervention in healthcare and demand that all price discounts negotiated between drug manufacturers and insurance companies actually go to patients.

It's just another reminder that in Joe Biden's America, everything costs more.

Safeguarding Texas Healthcare: Rejecting PBM reform for patient prosperity

By Dr. Robin Armstrong, January, 2024

In the Lone Star State, where individualism and self-determination are central to our way of life, the looming specter of Pharmacy Benefit Manager (PBM) reform raises concerns among Texans who staunchly oppose socialist government interference and control. As the debate over healthcare policy unfolds in Congress, lawmakers must promote the principles of limited government and personal freedom by avoiding extreme government controls on our private healthcare system. The proposed changes threaten to restrict PBMs' ability to negotiate lower pharmaceutical costs and save patients money and oppose our Texan ethos that champions independence and a free-market approach.

The business practices of PBMs have undergone significant evolution over the past fifty years, yet their fundamental roles remain unchanged. PBMs employ tools that save money, ensure access to life-saving medicines, and prevent fraudulent activities. At the core of their operations are the crucial tasks of developing and maintaining drug formularies, negotiating with pharmacies, wholesalers, and drug manufacturers on behalf of plan sponsors, establishing and overseeing a network of pharmacies, and contributing to the expansion of mail-order pharmacy services. These capabilities and services have, on average, saved patients in Texas and across the country an average of \$1,040 annually, an impressive testament to their effectiveness in reducing drug costs. Protecting the financial security and health of Texas patients and all those across the country should be a top priority. Reforms that disrupt the delicate balance of these negotiations and tools could lead to increased costs for patients and undermine their ability to access essential treatments. Lawmakers must carefully weigh the potential benefits against these risks to ensure the affordability of medicines for the constituents they serve.

There is also the valid concern that the Bernie Sanders-backed provisions targeting PBMs would be a step closer to a socialized healthcare system. Implementing increased bureaucratic measures and red tape would align with Sanders' progressive agenda and could result in significant and widespread consequences, potentially reshaping the fundamental principles of our healthcare system. Pushing back against his progressive policies and the expansion of government-run healthcare is imperative, and we must ensure we are not compromising the free market components of our healthcare infrastructure that are working well.

Moreover, some lawmakers have suggested the inclusion of price caps in the PBM reform efforts. Setting specific prices or regulating rates for PBMs would disrupt the healthcare market and reduce their ability to negotiate effectively. This would ultimately turn power over to government bureaucrats and harm patients. I applaud Sens. Ted Cruz (R-TX) and John Cornyn (R-TX) and Rep. Pete Sessions (R-Waco) for their steadfast stance against price caps during deliberations on the Inflation Reduction Act and am hopeful that they will continue advocating against price caps as PBM reform takes center stage in Congress.

Texas federal legislators must oppose PBM reform given the negative repercussions for patients. Preserving a competitive marketplace and the financial security of patients is essential. Let's steer clear of jeopardizing the effective and cost-efficient role that PBMs play in our state's healthcare ecosystem by resisting calls for heightened government interference.

Illegal Alien Crimes and Liberal Silence and Excuses

By George Rodriguez, El Conservador

On Wednesday, June 26, there was a fourth incident in ten days where an American female - or females - were killed by illegal aliens. What is surprising is the silence among liberals, especially liberal women's groups, about this frightening trend that is associated with the Biden open, unsecured border.

Liberal groups justify Biden's border policies as "humanitarian" but ignore the tsunami of criminal illegal aliens, terrorists, and illicit drugs coming into the country. The murders show the danger of allowing unvetted illegal aliens into our communities.

Specifically, the following murders were reported in the news between June 17 and June 27, 2024.

- ◆ Monday, June 17 - An illegal alien from El Salvador was arrested in Tulsa, OK, for the rape and murder of Rachel Morin in Harford County, MD, in August 2023. Victor Martinez-Hernandez, 23, was tracked down by police using DNA from the crime scene in Maryland. He had also assaulted a woman in Los Angeles and murdered another one in El Salvador.
- ◆ Tuesday, June 18 - Jhon Moises Chacaguasay-Illbis, a 21-year-old illegal alien from Ecuador, was arrested by Syracuse, NY, police for allegedly suffocating a woman and burying her body in a city park.
- ◆ Thursday, June 20 - Two undocumented Venezuelan men have been charged with the capital murder of 12-year-old Jocelyn Nungaray in Houston, TX. They might also be accused of rape.
- ◆ Thursday, June 27 - Irving, TX, police arrested Oved Bernardo Mendoza Argueta, 37, for the double homicide of two women inside a Chick-fil-A restaurant. The two female victims, 49-year-old Patricia Portillo and 31-year-old Brayan Alexis Godoy, were employees of the restaurant.

Besides these recent incidents, there have been several other high-profile murders of American women, such as Mollie Tibbetts in Iowa, Kate Steinle in San Francisco, Laken Riley in Georgia, and Catalina Valdez Andrade and Merced Andrade Ballon in Farmers Branch, Texas. There have also been other attacks on women and young girls in small communities that do not get national news attention.

A secured border and a stringent vetting process could have prevented these crimes. Immigrants and foreign aliens should only enter the U.S. with a proper background check and permission.

However, in many cases, it is impossible to do background checks because records of crimes and criminals do not exist in many countries. This lack of information makes it easy for illegal aliens to use fake names to enter the U.S. Also, there is a substantial number of illegal aliens crossing daily, many undetected, which makes identifying criminals more difficult.

It is the Biden Administration's liberal and lax immigration policies and unsecured borders that are responsible for illegal alien criminals being in America. Under Biden's Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas, aliens are allowed into the country first and then apply for permission to stay.

This backward and hurried processing makes it challenging to identify criminals and terrorists when they cross the border. They can melt into the communities until they commit a crime.

However, liberal political issues like the unsecured and open border are more important than women's safety. For example, Harris County (Houston), TX, County Judge Lina Hidalgo, a liberal Democrat, said "evil happens regardless of immigration status" and urged fellow leaders not to politicize the 12-year-old's alleged murder at the hands of two undocumented Venezuelan men. Secretary Mayorkas said illegal alien criminals should be blamed for the murder, not the Biden Administration.

The Brennan Center for Justice, a liberal think tank, released a report in May 2024 that concluded, "Data does not support claims that the United States is experiencing a surge in crime caused by immigrants." Does this mean that illegal alien crime and violence are tolerable to liberals and Democrats?

Regardless of the liberal excuses, these murders were preventable because the illegal alien criminals should not be in the U.S. Some countries of the world that have taken advantage of the lax Biden border policies and dumped their criminals and mentally ill citizens in the U.S.

The Border Patrol must be allowed to do their duty to secure the border and prevent the entry of illegal aliens and drugs. Federal immigration agents should be detaining and deporting those who are arrested. Unfortunately, there are many "sanctuary" cities and states that refuse to cooperate with immigration agents.

All immigrants and foreign visitors must be vetted before they enter the country, and all illegal aliens should be deported, regardless of their age, race, health, income, and family status. We cannot allow criminals, terrorists, and people with infectious diseases to enter the country freely.

But the liberal silence is on illegal alien crimes, and violence is deafening.

The Great Equalizer - Ten Lessons about Democracy

From Orlando Dona

Very interesting analysis from Bill O'Reilly today about tax increases. So here is what I learned: Progressives like the idea of raising corporate taxes for the following ten reasons -- assuming a Democrat house and Senate and President:

1. Raising taxes will not immediately break a company. Usually there is some cash that can be used to stopgap a tax increase.
2. The company cannot stay in business without raising the cost for the consumer. So whatever is being produced.. cars, food, gas, homes, etc. -- will be more expensive as the new cost is passed on.
3. All citizens will have to pay the higher costs, with a certain level of the lower and middle class unable to keep up with the increased product prices. So they buy less, cheaper, or not at all.
4. The REVENUE obtained from the tax increase is distributed to those same above poor and lower middle class, who now can afford some of those items above and become beholden to the Democrats in office for giving them stuff... or money so they can buy stuff.
5. The upper middle class and wealthy now fund the increased cost of goods.
6. The upshot is a Robin Hood scenario. Funds are redistributed -- taken from one class of people and given to another class of people.
7. The businesses taxed are NOT really impacted by the tax increase. They just pass on the increase to the nation. But the cry of Democrats is NOT about wealth redistribution (yet), it's about the unfairness that rich people have so much (without mentioning the work it took to earn this.)
8. Republicans who fight this redistribution are seen as favoring the rich, when in actuality they want America to operate with an economy that is not focused on wealth redistribution, graft, and political ideology.
9. This is an untenable ideology rooted in socialism and communism. If we don't fight this, we will see our middle class disappear; because you will personally eventually either be a wealthy "someone who is taxed" or a poor person who will "collect from the government".
10. The problem with passively allowing this is that these progressives want to do more than just distribute money. They want to stay in power no matter what, kill the family, erode our education system, eliminate our churches, and take down everything that is Godly and honorable... killing life... liberty... and Godliness. JUST so they can stay in power and rule us.

It's the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire (Gibbon) mixed with the book Atlas Shrugged (Ayn Rand) (read both of these classics!) -- distract the masses with entertainment and money until they cannot see what is happening.. and one day these masses (we!) will wake up and our nation is not something we recognize anymore... lost.

Be wary!

A Math Lesson About Paying Your Fair Share of Social Security— It's About 5th Grade Division

by Orlando Dona

It is a simple division problem. Everyone who pays into Social Security pays up to a certain earnings cap. If you are a human being that earned up to $168,600 then you will pay $10,453.00. So you are paying 6.2% of your salary. Roughly 6%, as stated by President Biden.

But if you are a human being making $1.04M or so... perhaps an average of what those "despicable rich people" are earning, the you are doing good but congress still requires you to pay the fair share maximum that every adult human being in the United States pays... that same $10,453.00. The division problem of 10453/1040000 means that even though they paid their same "share" as required by the government, now they are just paying 1% of their salary.

This is the law.

That human has made more money and thereby contributes more to the Republic by creating jobs for people who work to give that human what they buy. AND this human will be able to earn that same amount of Social Security paycheck as the guy who earned only $168,600.00... they don't earn any more or less. It's the SAME. No more than about $3800 per month or so at full retirement age.

Congrats for contributing their fair share! OR? Don't these humans pay their fair share and earn their fair share of retirement pay?

It's a simple division problem.

The War in Iraq and Burn Pits by Orlando Dona

I am sorry about Beau Biden's cancer. No one should ever have cancer. Biden said his son's death was caused by the War in Iraq. I am not one to contest that, but I did experience it as Beau did.

I served in Iraq at Camp Victory starting in April 2008. I was actually there at Camp Victory, Baghdad International Airport (BIAP) when Beau Biden arrived there in late 2008. We both had business in Saddam's palace... gold everywhere, but it was a facade of gold that was for show. I didn't get a chance to meet Beau but while there, the burn pit danger was not something we had to deal with at Camp Victory, Liberty, etc.. If there was some kind of burn out nonsense there that somehow survived so much time, I thank God that the tens of thousands of fellow Army, Air Force, Marines, and Navy folks have had limited impact by any kind of brain cancer.

God is good and He protected us at Camp Victory and Camp Liberty, and at Abu Graib--where some other bad things happened.

Slamming it Home by Orlando Dona

I was a little disappointed that President Trump did not slam home the problem with a "bipartisan" solution to the border crisis we are facing in America, as posited by President Biden.

The PROBLEM is NOT that we don't have a bipartisan solution! The problem is that there is ALREADY a solution in place for the border that should have prevented what is happening down there, but executive orders and executive department policies and directives circumvent and remove what our Congress has passed -- creating the problem.

More laws? More bipartisan laws!?! It's not possible for more laws to help because Homeland Security and the Border Patrol are EXECUTIVE AGENCIES not under the control of the Congress... all Congress can do is to pull funding, and it will NOT do so to further exacerbate the problems caused by Executive Order.

This is untenable.
